Special Summer Programs

Grown-Up & Me: Exploding Dino Art Tuesday, June 23 @ 1:00-3:00 pm

For kids going into grades 1-5 with a grown-up

Roar! Each child & grown-up will work together to make an exciting 3-D art piece where it looks like a dinosaur is bursting out of a canvas! Every child needs to be accompanied by a grown-up for this program. Please register only one child and one grown-up per form.

Puppet Show with Adam Swartz Puppets Thursday, July 9 @ 6:30 pm

Best for families with children ages 2-12

This family friendly puppet show will entertain kids and parents alike while supporting the summer learning theme of Unearth a Story! This program is part of our Imagination Series programming.

Please register all attendees of any age online.

Dino-Magic Show! with Bamboozling Bob Thursday, August 6 @ 6:30pm

For all ages

Abraca-DINO! In this interactive show, kids will experience a prehistoric adventure filled with magical surprises, comedy, and audience participation. Dinosaurs appear, disappear, and cause plenty of hilarious chaos while children help solve magical mysteries along the way.

Please register attendees of any age online.

Summer Food Service Mondays & Thursdays 12:00-1:00 pm

Join us for a FREE HOT LUNCH for kids ages 0-18 provided by the Nutrition Group. No registration or pre-qualifications required. Come have something good to eat!

And we always have our complimentary PB&J tray available - just ask!

Abraham Lincoln: A New Birth of Freedom Sunday, August 2 1:00-2:30 pm

Abraham Lincoln, portrayed by renowned re-enactor Kevin Wood, relates the history of the United States during his time, from his childhood on the frontier to the turbulent years from 1854 to 1865 which nearly destroyed our young nation but instead eventually resulted in a "new birth of freedom." Mr. Lincoln quotes from his best-known speeches and writings and brings history – and his story – to life. Please register online.
